For 24 years, Katarzyna Sawicka was looking for her mother. According to Wirtualna Polska, the woman was finally found.

In the 1990s, Halina Sawicka left for the German town of Brunswick to find a better job. Before leaving, she lived with her husband and two children in Białystok. Immediately after leaving, the contact with the woman ceased. The family expected Sawicka to come to Poland for the Holy Communion of her daughter Kasia, but it did not happen. When the woman's sister went to Germany to find out what was going on with Halina, she found only clothes and a few personal items in her apartment. Despite searches by the police and Interpol, Halina Sawicka was not found. In an interview with Wirtualna Polska conducted a month ago, relatives appealed to the woman asking for contact.

According to the Wirtualna Polska portal, the woman found herself after 24 years. Two days ago, Katarzyna spoke to her mother on the phone. - I admit that it was difficult and beautiful at the same time. I don't know how our relationship will develop further because the matter is more complicated than we thought. Perhaps we will meet soon and then we will learn more about what we have intentions for my sister and me. Of course, we want to get to know her again - said Halina's daughter, adding that the feeling that accompanies the news that her mother has found herself is indescribable and is heartbreaking.

Due to the privacy of the protagonists, it was not disclosed what happened with Halina Sawicka all this time.
