PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY -- Police are looking for information on a body recovered in 2008 that has recently been identified.

Police say the remains were found on April 5, 2008 in Farmville, Virginia and are now believed to be Glenn Edward Wilson.

Police say Wilson was a carpenter in the Kill Devil Hills area.

Anyone with information on Wilson are asked to contact Lieutenant Richard Hurak, Prince Edward County Sheriff's Office, 434-392-8101 or rhurak@co.prince-edward.va.us or Senior Special Agent R. Clay Overholt, Virginia State Police, 434-352-3443 or clay.overholt@vsp.virginia.gov.

Remains found in Virginia are Kill Devil Hills man

Farmville, Va. — Authorities in Prince Edward County, Va., are looking south for help to solve the case of a man whose body was found there in 2008.

The Prince Edward County Sheriff's Office asked for help from the public to help trace the final days of Glenn Edward Wilson, of Kill Devil Hills.

Wilson, who investigators said was a carpenter in Dare County, would have been 50 years old at the time his body was found. Authorities did not say how long he had been dead before he was found.

The last available photograph of Wilson, from 2005, shows a white man with short, reddish-brown hair, facial hair and hazel eyes.

Wilson had a series of distinctive tattoos, include a heart with the message "I love you, Kelsey, Always."

Anyone with information about Wilson's disappearance is asked to call the Prince Edward County Sheriff's Office at 434-392-8101 or Virginia State Police at 434-352-3443.
