

After twenty years in the dark, Bruno Lusakiovovo had already given up hope to see his son alive again. "I hope Simon will still contact us." Photo: phu, belga

Father of 20 years missing Simon Lembi (33) falls from the sky: "My son is alive? You are kidding me?"

07/02/2019 at 02:00 by Pieter Huyberegts, Tim Lescauwat, Cedric Lagast

One of the country's most mysterious disappearances has been solved after twenty years. The Angolan boy Simon Lembi, who disappeared in Brussels when he was fourteen, lives and is doing well. Father Bruno Lusakiovovo, after years of searching, was forced to stop the search. Every trace went dead, Simon seemed to have gone up in smoke. "Are you coming to tell me that my son is still alive? His mother has been waiting for this news for twenty years!"

source: https://www.gva.be/cnt/dmf20190206_04157797/vader-van-20-jaar-lang-vermiste-simon-lembi-33-valt-uit-de-lucht-mijn-zoon-leeft-dat-meen-je-niet