

Buffalo Police looking for help on 1988 cold case

Sonya went missing in September of 1988 and remains that positively matched hers were found in March of 1989.

Credit: Buffalo Police Department: Cold Case

Author: Olivia Beilein

Published: 4:55 PM EST November 14, 2023

Updated: 6:09 PM EST November 14, 2023

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Buffalo Police are reopening a cold case from 1988 in hopes of finding new information on the disappearance of Sonya Yvette Archie.

Sonya had been reported missing and was last seen in September of 1988. She was described as 5 feet 1 inches and weighed approximately 100 pounds.

A year after her disappearance in March of 1989 the Buffalo Police Department had discovered remains that were positively identified as Sonya's by Kensington Avenue and Pauline Place in Buffalo.

If there is anyone who may have any information on the disappearance of Sonya Yvette Archie they are asked to please contact the Buffalo Police Department Homicide, and Cold Case Squad at (716)-851-4511. People may also utilize the confidential tip line at (716)-847-2255.

The image is a screenshot of a Facebook post from the Buffalo Police Department. The post is set against a red background with white L-shaped corner markers. The post header shows the Buffalo Police Department logo and name, with a verified badge and a timestamp of '23h'. The main text of the post reads: 'Anyone who knew Sonya Yvette Archie or may have information regarding this investigation or any unsolved case is encouraged to contact the Buffalo Police Department Homicide/Cold Case Squad at (716) 851-4511 or the confidential tip line at (716) 847-2255.' Below the text are two side-by-side promotional cards. The left card is titled 'COLD CASE INVESTIGATION' and contains the following text: 'Buffalo Police Department detectives need the public's assistance as they continue to investigate the death of Sonya Yvette Archie. Sonya Archie was reported missing in 1988. Sonya was 5'11" tall and weighed approximately 100 lbs. She was last seen in September of 1988. On March 25th, 1989, human remains were discovered at Kensington Avenue and Pauline Place in Buffalo. They were able to be identified and were positively identified to be that of Sonya Yvette Archie. Anyone who knew Sonya Yvette Archie or may have information regarding this investigation or any unsolved case is encouraged to contact the Buffalo Police Department Homicide/Cold Case Squad at (716) 851-4511 or the confidential tip line at (716) 847-2255.' The right card is also titled 'COLD CASE INVESTIGATION' and features a portrait of Sonya Yvette Archie. Below the portrait, it states: 'Sonya Yvette Archie' and 'Missing: September 1988 Remains Located: March 25th 1989'.