

Police ask help in search for woman

Police are asking for help in finding an Orlando woman who has been missing more than a month.

Investigators said they have no evidence of foul play, but are treating the disappearance of Penney Mollett, 31, 4610 Fern Pine Drive, as suspicious.

Mollett

Mollett, who lived at home with her teen-age son, never has been known to stay away from home a long time, detectives said.

Investigators also are searching for Mollett's car, which they believe she was driving when she left home the night of April

1. Police said they don't know where she went.

The car is a light metallic blue, 1979 BMW 320i sedan with a sunroof and Florida tag IBV 589.

Anyone who may know where Mollett can be found is asked to call Orlando police investigators at 849-2419 or Crimeline at 849-2482.
